PUTNAM'S MONTHLY
A Magazine of Literature, Science & Art.
AN ENTIRELY ORIGINAL AMERICAN WORK.

WITH the January number commences the seventh volume of PUTNAM'S MONTHLY. The constantly increasing circulation of the Magazine, and the yearly sympathy with which the efforts of the Publishers have been received by the public, stimulate them to unwearied efforts to continue to deserve the success which they have achieved It is the aim of the Magazine to furnish the greatest variety of popular literature, to criticise politics and society, from the most manly and generous point of view, to tell the truth about books and men, so far as they are properly subjects of public notice, to present the most spirited and accurate sketches of travel and personal adventure to discuss science in all its popular bearings, and in general to make itself the vehicle of the best observations upon all contemporary and national interests This will always be done by the best talent in the country and honestly, but it cannot always be done without offence PUTNAM'S MONTHLY is not then a story book, nor a partisan journal It has opinions and principles It seeks to amuse and instruct, but it helps also to the fulfilment of good morals sound learning and the most liberal and earnest discussion

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY—The numbers of this leading American Magazine have reached us at the same time, and brought upon us an embarras de richesses The articles number some eighteen in each and there is not one that we should be inclined to pass over unread. Putnam's has a peculiar attraction for us and we see in it a reflection of the mind, manners and intelligence of our transatlantic cousins. It carries us into a new country and makes us acquainted with all its characteristics in an easy, unaffected manner Politics are not neglected, but we do not detect faction or even party, and we read under a persuasion that we are gathering the impartial opinion of the best minds in the United States—London (Eng) Weekly Times

Terms —$3 a year, or 25c a number Subscribers remitting $3 promptly, in advance to the Publishers, will receive the work for one year, post paid in any part of the United States, within 3000 miles

CASE OF PASSMORE WILLIAMSON
Edited, with an Introduction and Notes
BY RICHARD HILDRETH
One Volume, 420 pages, 12mo Price $1,00

THE various man hunting expeditions which have within the last few years, been made into the North, and the numerous trials including the Jerry, the Sims the Burns and similar cases, and the crowning act of infamy enacted by

JUDGE KANE UPON PASSMORE WILLIAMSON

have excited the profoundest indignation and alarm The Publishers believe, the efforts that this amply attested and clearly drawn record of what judges have done will lead the people to see what, if unchecked, judges may still do

Capital over $160 000, in Cash & Premium Notes.

THIS COMPANY offers unrivalled facilities for the insurance of Buildings and Personal Property against fire The advantages offered are security beyond the reach of circumstances, as the real estate insured is by law bound for the assessment made to cover losses beyond the power of evasion Every person insured is a member of the Company, and entitled to one vote. The cost of insurance does not exceed one third as much as in Stock Companies, saying nothing of the increased security and the incomplete ease with which losses are settled During the last five years this Company have issued 2600 Policies and made but three assessments, at a cost to the property insured, not exceeding two mills on the dollar—Its business is principally confined to this State.

New York, Nov 14th, 1855.

Philander Eddy, Ag't World's Safe Co Chicago, Ill.

DEAR SIR —You will notice by the New York papers that Lillie's Chilled Iron, Fire and Burglar Safes and Bank Locks manufactured by the World's Safe Co, Troy, N Y, have as usual obtained another victory at the great Fair of the American Institute held at the Crystal Palace, over the combined sheet iron Safe makers, by securing the first premium on both Safe and Lock [illegible] The Chicago certificate farce and poster [illegible] circulated here, but their malignant design did not defeat the known superiority of Lillie's Safes, and the Crystal Palace jurors have now confirmed what the jury at the Detroit Fair decided, the Chicago jurors repudiated, and the public reiterated that Lillie's Safe and Bank Lock are the best in the world Respectfully,

PIANO FORTE TUNING AND REGULATING.

THE SUBSCRIBER, having engaged the service of MR E T HURLBUT, a competent and experienced tuner, is now prepared to attend to all orders with which he may be favored. The following testimonial to Mr Hurlbut's capability is from the director of the celebrated German Musical Society

[illegible] March 27, 1855

It is with much pleasure that I recommend Mr E. T Hurlbut as a Piano forte Tuner and regulator To say that he is an excellent tuner, I would not be doing him justice for I can without hesitation say that he is capable of tuning, and tune as near to perfection as it is possible for a Piano forte to be. The greatest recommendation for me is the unusual length of time which his Pianos remain in tune. I have never, either in Europe or America, seen a man whom I would so cheerfully and with so much confidence employ to tune or regulate a Piano Forte as Mr Hurlbut, and I most cheerfully recommend him to all who want Pianos tuned.

News of the Morning.

The Africa is in, with a week's later dates from Europe. She brings news of an advance in breadstuffs, a decline in Consols, the usual rumors of peace, and the active and general preparations for continued war. Matters at Washington are evidently approaching a climax. No special news from Madison. The New York market and our own improved under the advices by the Africa. We have a full report of the argument in the Supreme Court.

Read and Watch!

We invoke the special attention of all our readers to the all important cause now on trial in the Supreme Court of this State, which is to decide who is the legal Governor of Wisconsin. The report of the Argument on Tuesday is full of interest and significant in the extreme.

Blind of one Eye.

The Madison Argus of Monday, asserts that "Mr Bashford is a Know Nothing after all" and thus cites the Free Democrat of this city to prove the fact.

The Free Democrat of Saturday last states the following as a fact, relating to Mr Bashford's Know Nothing principles. It claims to have the information "from individuals who claim to have been members of the Order at the time, and to speak knowingly."

"That Coles Bashford was initiated and took the usual obligations, before his nomination; but as there was no constitution present, he did not subscribe his name, and therefore was not, technically a member. So that his letter, denying membership in the Order, according to the political code of ethics, was true."

The Argus garbles the evidence and misrepresents its own witness, to begin with; though that is strictly in keeping with its usual course. So far from "stating as a fact," what the Argus quotes, the Free Democrat published it with the following proviso:

"We do not vouch for the truth, of these reports but there are many corroborating circumstances, which give them an air of probability."

The difference between "a fact," and a "report" having merely "an air of probability," is too obvious to need remark.

But besides misquoting its own witness, the Argus suppressed just half of the evidence. It gives, of course, though with a false coloring what the Free Democrat had to say against Mr Bashford, but it withheld what the same witness testified in regard to Mr Barstow. Here is what the Argus omitted:

"2 That Wm. A. Barstow was a member, was expressly absolved, and authorized to deny his membership, that the American was ostensibly to support Bashford, for the purpose of driving the foreign Republican electors over to Barstow, or preventing them from voting for Bashford, and that the Order, so far as the members could be controlled by their leaders supported Barstow."

All this the Argus leaves out, yet it is stated by the Free Democrat as just as much "fact" as the "report" about Mr Bashford. The Argus holds that the testimony is sufficient to convict Mr Bashford of being a Know Nothing. Of course, therefore, by its own ruling, it is clearly and conclusively proven that Wm A Barstow was a Know Nothing, but had a special absolution authorizing him to deny his membership and that the K N order though "ostensibly for Bashford, in reality, so far as their leaders could control them, "supported Barstow." This is just what we supposed, and the united testimony of the Argus, Free Democrat and "members of the order," "who speak knowingly," to the fact, leave little doubt on the subject. We commend it to the earnest consideration of those of our adopted fellow citizens who were humbugged by this characteristic trick, into voting for Barstow.

The State Finances.

In the partizan communication of the Pretender Governor to the Legislature, a special effort was made, by deliberately misrepresenting the financial condition of the State and wilfully falsifying the acts of the last Legislature, to impeach that body before the People of levying an oppressive and unnecessary tax, for the mere purpose of raising a clamor against the State Administration. The extraordinary passage in which this formal charge was made by a usurping Governor against a Legislature in one branch of which his own political friends had entire control and over the acts of which he himself, as Governor, held and exercised a supervisory power, occurs at the end of a studied mystification and misrepresentation of the State Finance, and reads thus:

"For what purpose a State Tax of over $350,000 was levied by the last Legislature, I have never been able to understand, unless it was with a view to create partizan clamor for political ends, which, to all conversant with the history of politics in this State during the past year must seem at least, quite probable."

In our comments upon this impudent falsehood (for it is that and nothing else—we showed that the $350,000 tax was first proposed by the Senate Finance Committee, consisting of two Barstow men and one Republican, that it passed the Dem Senate without objection or opposition; that in the Assembly, on the suggestion of their Finance Committee, whereof Mr M L Martin, a well-known Democrat, was Chairman, the tax was increased to $375,000, as necessary to meet the wants of the Treasury; that the Senate objecting to the increase, the bill passed, as first introduced, fixing the tax at $350,000, and that in this shape it was signed and approved by Wm A Barstow, and became a law. To those undisputed and indisputable facts, Senator Harvey in the speech which we publish to day adds a few more of the same sort. We commend them to the special attention of our readers. It will be seen that the State Treasurer, Janssen and his Deputy, Seaver, both Barstow men, called for a tax of four hundred thousand dollars, that the Committee in consultation with Ex-Governor Dewey, another Barstow man, fixed upon $350,000, that instead of a reported surplus of thirty odd thousand dollars last year, there was a deficiency of one hundred and seventy six thousand, that Senators even now cannot get cash for their scrip, because the Treasury is empty, that the account of the financial condition of the State, given in the message, is illusory and utterly unreliable—in a word that Wm A Barstow, our mock Executive, in his late message to the Legislature, has stooped to the meanness of wilful and deliberate falsehood, with a view to create partizan clamor for political ends."

Is there any escape from this conclusion?—Can the slightest excuse, or apology be trumped up for the false statements and falser imputations of the Message? Has Barstow no organ in this whole State desperate enough to brazen out this matter, or to offer some palliation for so gross an offence against Truth, and so flagrant a breach of executive duty and dignity? Not one! No answer is made—no excuse offered, no plea put in. In this, as in the matter of the fraud charged and proved in the Canvass, SILENCE GIVES CONSENT.

FROM MADISON

Editorial Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Jan 22

By the following report, it will be seen that the ice is broken in earnest in the suit for the post of Governor of Wisconsin. The Assembly adjourned after a session of half an hour, and the Senate after a brief session and the members crowded into the Court room.

No report can do justice to the evidently fixed determination of the Att'y General to rule in the suit, and the game of delay has become more and more apparent. The proceedings to-day have had an excellent effect, in showing where the right of the case rests.

The Gubernatorial Contest

IN SUPREME COURT

MADISON Jan 22 10 A M

At the opening of the Court this morning, Mr Knowlton, of Counsel for Coles Bashford contesting the seat of Governor, submitted a motion to discontinue the information filed by Atty General Smith, and for liberty to prosecute the information by Mr Bashford himself and his Counsel. Before proceeding to read the matter upon which the motion is founded Atty General Smith took exception to the words entitling the suit, and claimed that there was no such suit as Mr Knowlton's papers mentioned. Counsel for Mr Bashford insisted that the suits were the same, and that if there is any wrong entitling, the wrong is on the other side.

Chief Justice Whiton—Is the Attorney General satisfied that the motion is in the same suit?

The Attorney General said he was not satisfied and insisted that there seemed to be a determination to bring a new suit.

The Court said that they would hold Mr Bashford's attorneys to their admission that the suit is the same as the one before brought and the Attorney General cheerfully submitted.

Mr Knowlton now read the notice served upon the Attorney General of the motion now made. He then read the statement of Mr Bashford, the basis of the application now made. It narrates the application to the Attorney General for liberty to use his name in the suit for the seat of Governor, the submission of the papers to the Attorney General with a request for him to sign and file. That said papers set forth fully all the facts which the relator believed to be true, and that the Attorney General has not filed the information but an entirely different one calculated to [illegible] and prejudice the interests of Mr Bashford and that the Attorney General is favorable to the interests of Mr Barstow.

Mr Knowlton now read the information filed by the Attorney General.

Next he read the affidavit of N W Dean concerning an interview between Mr Bashford and the Attorney General in relation to the request made by the former to the latter for the use of his name.

Next the affidavit of E G Ryan of counsel for Mr Bashford of an interview between him and the Attorney General, in which the latter refused to give up control of the suit, he being hostile to its success, and this fact being preferred to his consideration.

Next Mr Knowlton was about to read the original information presented to the Attorney General, when the latter said that he would like to know whether this was the proper time to read it, or whether the Court ought not to decide first whether the information now filed should be discontinued.

Chief Justice—What is the paper?

Attorney General—May it please the Court, I do not know what the paper is at all.

Chief Justice—Had you not better hear it, then?

The Attorney General's answer was not distinct but on Mr Knowlton's saying, "the Attorney General does not understand the whole of our motion," he replied, "Yes, I do, as perfectly as the counsel employed by Mr Coles Bashford."

Mr Knowlton proceeded to read the paper, which makes application for the writ of quo warranto to show by what right Mr Barstow held the office of Governor.

The papers recite the vote as declared by the State Canvassers. [Here at 10 1 2 o'clock the assembly adjourned, the anxiety to listen to the case being such as to crowd the room long before.]

After stating the vote as so counted for each County, the application alleges that Wm A Barstow did not receive the number of votes counted for him in Waupacca County, but that Coles Bashford had a majority of 19[illegible] and that the vote was not truly returned, that 90 votes were stated to have been cast in town 25 R 10 of said county which vote is entirely fictitious, and never was counted by the county canvassers, and that the State Canvassers had no legal return of said votes.

That the whole number of votes cast in said county was 597 (Bashford 211 Barstow 385) but was falsely returned at 607 (Barstow [illegible] Bashford [illegible]). That the State Canvassers threw out 61 votes counted at Mukwa where Bashford had 127 majority. That from Chippewa County there were counted 97 for Barstow and 25 for Bashford, from Bridge Creek, [illegible] for Barstow and 14 for Bashford from Gilberts Mills, Dunn Co [illegible] for Barstow and 15 for Bashford from Spring Creek, Polk Co, the three last returns being false and fictitious.

That in Lafayette Co a town giving 8 for Barstow and 29 for Bashford was thrown out.

That in Monroe Co 8 majority in Sheboygan 9 majority more were allowed to Barstow than was legal.

That the votes of LaCrosse county (41 maj for Bashford) and those of St Croix (9 for Bashford) ought to be counted.

That on these premises Bashford had a majority on the legal returns, and was elected to the office of Governor, and that Wm A Barstow usurps the office.

The applicant asks for writ, &c and judgment of ouster against Wm A Barstow.

Here follows Coles Bashford's affidavit stating his belief that he can sustain the case above made.

Next, the request to Attorney General to file the above information, &c &c.

Mr Knowlton now read Ch 28 of the Laws of 55, giving power to individuals to file writs of information, having first applied to the Attorney General to file the information, and been refused.

That the Legislature in passing that law intended to give the individual power to institute and control his suit. The law requires that an information shall first be prepared and shall be presented to the Attorney General. He further argued that this construction is in accordance with rules of law in other cases of the kind in other States. The law in the Revised Statute intended to give an individual its power over the [illegible] in cases, and the Legislature of last year provided for a suggestion upon the record and intended that the individual interested should be allowed to control the prosecution. Had as the Attorney General has not filed the information, Mr Bashford becomes entitled to take control of the suit and file information on his own behalf. The Attorney General did not file the information presented to him but did present an information, over Coles Bashford's name—such an information as he had no authority to present. That it was the duty of the Attorney General to file the information or to refuse to do so but had no right to file another in the name of the applicant. On this point, the counsel dwelt at length enforcing it by pertinent illustration. Further, that the law gives an individual the right to prosecute, can then, the Attorney General prevent the individual from controlling the suit. Mr Knowlton insisted that the applicant has a right to prosecute the suit, whether the Attorney General has or has not filed the information presented to him to file,—that he (the applicant) must have, in any event control of the suit, and the Attorney General cannot dismiss it at his pleasure, at any stage of the proceeding, which would be a great injustice, and the individual will stand at the mercy of the Attorney General, who can consent to a continuance of the suit over and over, till the term is out, and then dismiss the suit!

Mr K said by a mere replication in the progress of the pleading, the Attorney Gen'l might give away the case at a blow, and the individual be thus defrauded of his just rights. Also that the public were safe in any event because if a person should succeed wrongfully in getting into office, the Attorney General could of his own motion commence a suit to enquire into the fact.

The Counsel cited 6 Stevens, Corr 100, 2 do 39, Note A. Several questions were put by the Court to the Counsel upon supposed cases arising on his construction, for instance, where several persons were contesting. Counsel cited 1st Burrall 578, and R S—to show how evils at quo warranto could be consolidated. 4th Cowen, 101 to 108, note, was also cited to show that the writ of quo warranto is a civil remedy which the citizen has a right through his counsel to prosecute.

Attorney General Smith said that he should before proceeding to answer, read an affidavit.—It is by himself and says that when Messrs Bashford and Dean called upon him Messrs M M Strong and H M Billings were present. The statement did not seem to controvert that of the affidavit of Mr Bashford, though it states more, as the Attorney General stated.

The affidavit further relates with great circumstantiality, the presentation of the papers to the Attorney General at the theatre. (Those who may not have seen Mr Knowlton's letter should know that he says that he chased the Attorney General from pillar to post till he "earthed" him at the theatre "as aforesaid.") The affidavit further states his own conversation in the interview with E G Ryan making it highly logical, legal, emphatic, eloquent, grammatical &c of course no other than the opposite counsel could be likely to state or remember it.

Court then adjourned to 3 P M

Case Resumed—3 P. M.

Mr Ryan of Counsel for Mr Bashford, referred to Bacon's Abridgement, 406 407 1st Mc Cord [illegible] 43 2d Dallas 112, and read the authorities thus cited. The cases refer to the granting power to bring suit besides the Attorney General. The case in Dallas seemed to the point directly, being where two parties sought to carry on this suit without the Attorney General and the suit being considered in some degree as a private suit. The case in Mc Cord is one of a contested election where reference is made to a specific information.

The Attorney General Wm R Smith, next arose to answer. He alluded to the case as now claimed and presented, the highest judicial writ issued to the highest State officer to answer why he holds his office. In this case, the writ has been served and time given to answer. He intimated an opinion that the Court has no right to enquire into the manner of holding office by a co-ordinate branch of the government. In this case, he the Attorney General, comes to resist the allowing of an individual to come into Court and manage his own case without the Attorney General. He objected, that Mr Bashford has no right under the Constitution to come into Court because the Attorney General is directed to appear on behalf of the State, in cases where the people are a party or interested. He insisted that the act of 1855 on which the counsel for Mr Bashford rely as allowing them to come into Court does not give him liberty to do so. He denied that he had "refused or neglected" to file the information, but he had filed one in a manner known to the law, although not the one or such a one, as asked by Mr Bashford. He urged that to this hour, Mr Bashford has not complied with the conditions proper, that is, he has not exhibited the facts which he wished to prove—(What the man can mean, I can't see, if the fact presented in the papers handed to the Attorney General are not sufficient, what would be.)

Mr Smith proceeded to impugn the memory of Mr Dean, in his affidavit as "having drawn on his imagination for his facts." He expressed a great deal of indignation at the course of Mr Knowlton in looking up himself at the theatre at the dead of night, &c &c. He intimated that the waiting upon him at that time was intended to drive him to refuse to receive it. He said he intended to do his duty notwithstanding that he might be charged with being biased by his political feelings in favor of Barstow and he charged that the insinuation was of the same sort as that which boasted that both came from degraded party presses which he held in great contempt. (All this is pure humbug—contempt is easily managed by anybody. It is a little pitiful to be clothed with a little brief authority assume to be great things to rule or ruin to cheat citizens out of their rights that presses are compelled to allude to certain dignitaries as [illegible] contempt.)

The Attorney General further asserted that he supposed the conversation between him and E G Ryan, was a private one and between two gentlemen, and did not expect to find it detailed in affidavit. He insisted that he was not to be driven out of court because the people are interested and not "Mr Coles Bashford alone"—that he had opened the whole door but Mr Bashford preferred to crawl in through some cranny—that he, Mr B, "has been given all that he asked, and a great deal more, and yet he is not satisfied!"

He concluded by saying that he stood here protesting, as the legal officer of the State, against being prevented from protecting the rights of people, who were equally interested with Mr Bashford.

J E Arnold, appeared for Wm A Barstow. He said that the writ had been issued and returned served, informally, and he would now enter his appearance by Messrs J E Arnold, Orton, and Carpenter.

In answer to a question by the Court, Mr Arnold said that he opposed the motion made by Mr Bashford's counsel. He proceeded to argue against the doctrine that the Atty General must file the application presented to him or none.

Further, he said, that he, for the respondent Barstow would hold that this Court has no control over the matter as they would be prepared to show at the proper time. He argued that there is no particular intention in the use of the word the before "information" in the law of '55 but Atty General is allowed to file the information presented to him, or propose another. He further proceeded to sustain the Att'y General in his position and insisted that granting that all the alleged frauds were proved, still the Court could not declare Mr Bashford the Governor for fraud might have existed on the other side and could be pleaded and put in issue, and could not act upon the case until the election all over the State was verified. He expressed surprise that those in the interest of Mr Bashford should wish to limit the issue.

Mr Arnold referred to some of the authorities cited by counsel on the other side and closed.

H S Orton Esq, followed, arguing that the motion by Mr Bashford's counsel was informal, because it seeks to dismiss a case without giving the respondent notice. He would waive the point, however, and proceeded to urge that it was the interest of the respondent Barstow to have the information against him brought by the legal officer and in one form of law, and not by Tom Dick and Harry. He said he was instructed to say that the respondent did not intend to treat the Court contumaciously, or refuse to answer. If the Court should rule the Attorney General out the respondent's right would be prejudiced. He maintained that the whole object of the motion was to remove the Atty Genl on ground less fear that he would be prejudiced by his friendship for the respondent. Mr Orton alluded to the method in which the Atty Genl Estabrook, allowing Mr Doolittle to go on for some space in the suits against the Wis M & F In Co, took the reins in his own hands, and put a stop to the suit in effect, and he said that "papers in the interest of those mammoth corporations applauded the act." (Somehow this illustration seems unfortunate for the drawer of it for Mr Bashford may well fear that the Attorney General in this case might choose, at his own time to dismiss this suit. The "newspapers" seem to trouble Mr Orton also—I think they have done it before—and his memory was so treacherous as to forget that the papers aforesaid, if they expressed satisfaction at the act of the Atty Genl Estabrook, it was not by intruding upon the quiddities of the law, but by approving of the public benefit resulting from his act, in quieting financial apprehension.)

Mr Orton further urged that he himself drafted the law of 55 to meet the case of Prof Daniels removed by Barstow, and that he did not have the same idea of the necessity of allowing the citizen to go on irrespective of the Attorney General. My memory of the case is different and I doubt not that I would find many who then heard Mr Orton express an entirely different construction of the law from that which he now takes and one in accordance with the one now given by Mr Bashford's counsel.

Mr Orton further urged that there was a way by indictment and impeachment of the Attorney General, if he should be disposed to act corruptly. He objected that the form of information asked for was different from all others heretofore filed and was novel and unheard of. He said that an objection to the new form would be that it throws the obligation in relation to most of the courses on the respondent. He concluded by saying that the respondent would make no delay but answer manfully and legally, if the other side proceeded in due course of law.

E G Ryan proceeded to cite additional authorities, 1 Iredell 42, 1st Den o 369 2nd Hill 98.

He opened by saying that this case was of great importance as showing whether the most monstrous frauds could be examined into in this State. As well leave France to arbitrate between England and Russia as to leave the Attorney General to manage this case, as the profest of feeling made thus far clearly shows.

He proceeded to remark on the character of proceedings by quo warranto. No "relator" is known in cases of public right, but always the form is used, in cases of private right, and in such cases the citizen must have the right to manage his case. If the doctrine advanced by counsel on the other side be true, the Attorney General would have the right to turn half of the Attorneys in the State out of Court. The Attorney General having filed an information, using the name of Coles Bashford without his authority, is estopped from pretending that the matter rests in public right, and must allow the relator [Bashford] to manage the suit, which must go on at his cost. No authority has ever been given the Attorney General to use Mr Bashford's name in his information. He proceeded to insist on the proper interpretation of the law of 55 as to the information. The law means to allow the relator at his own peril and cost, to prepare his information and request the Attorney General to allow the use of his name, if he does not see fit to allow it, then the relator can proceed at his own peril and risk, and it does not mean to allow the Attorney General to dictate what the form of information shall be. He alluded to the idea of the other counsel that the office of Governor was so great that the power of this Court could not reach it. Whenever the relator should show a disposition to collude and not prosecute the suit with sufficient vigor then let the Attorney General come in, and ask to be allowed to prosecute. The other side cannot produce a case where a relator has been refused by the Attorney General the control of his own case.

He urged that if the law of last year had never been passed there is enough in this case to warrant this Court in granting the application made, or substantially the same. He went on to allude to the history of the cases as shown by the affidavits here made and read. He maintained that the Attorney General's own affidavit showed a degree of antagonism between himself and Mr Bashford, from the beginning. That it was a lack of professional courtesy to go on and file another information without any notice to the relator. That the feeling shown by the Attorney General to day shows antagonism against Bashford. That the cordial concurrence between the Attorney General and Mr Barstow's counsel to-day also shows it. That the Attorney General's refusal to associate with Mr Bashford's counsel in the case also shows it.

That such antagonism is natural, as the Attorney General is in intimate political relations with the respondent, and such antagonism is so evident that the rights of Coles Bashford should never be submitted to him. Mr Bashford and his counsel both swear that they believe the Attorney General biased against him and ask that he should not be left to his control.

The counsel said in relation to the press that he had read articles in the Barstow papers that this Court had no jurisdiction, and the whole two years term must expire before adjudication. They did not traverse the facts alleged, but they showed a game of delay entirely. Therefore Mr Bashford's counsel had endeavored to find a course by which they could save time and bring on an issue as soon as possible, and having tried to have a plea to the jurisdiction of the court brought at once, and to meet it. So they at once proceeded to impeach the certificate of the State Canvassers which would be plead by the respondent, and thus they gave two pleas. A collusion between the Attorney General and the respondent's counsel might certainly bring about by pleading, a long delay, but this don't suit the rights of Mr Bashford.

Refuse the motion now made, and Mr Bashford has nothing to do with the case except to pay the bill! He offers to go on at his own cost, that he is elected Governor and the Atty General says he shall have nothing to do with the case. If the ballot box is to be tampered with as is alleged, and there is no power to expose the monstrous frauds, there is an end to all ideas of popular government. On this motion depends the whole question whether those frauds shall be exposed and the man who was elected be placed in office wherever it be. If the effect of this suit shall be to root out and expose and mark with the mark of Cain the perpetrators of such frauds, Mr Bashford and his counsel will have done a good work.

The Court here took the case at 5½ P M

THE $350,000 STATE TAX.

Speech of

HON. L. P. HARVEY,

OF ROCK,

DELIVERED IN THE STATE SENATE, JANUARY 16th, 1856.

On the motion to refer, for investigation that part of the message which treats of the excessive tax of last year, to the committee on finance—Mr Harvey addressed the Senate as follows:

MR PRESIDENT—While listening to the reading of this extraordinary message before the joint convention of the two houses, it seemed to me that self respect as well as a proper sense of the dignity and independence of the legislature must withhold my vote from any motion in the Senate to print, refer, or extend any of the usual attentions to a paper of the character, tone and temper of the document before us. Through inattention or neglect of the majority parts of the paper have found a reference without opposition. I trust we shall proceed no further in this course but take up other items of legislative action without further reference to this so called executive communication, and for the reason, Mr President, that I deem the paper to be false in its statements of material facts—partizan in its character and insulting in its tone—both to the legislature, an equal and co ordinate branch of the government, and to the moral sentiments and cherished convictions of a large and loyal portion of the people of this State.

For the present, I design to confine my remarks to that portion of the message referred to in the motion under consideration—its statements touching the financial condition of the State.

We are told there was a balance in the treasury on the 1st day of the present month, of $42,526,[illegible]. Yet the treasury has been notoriously unable to meet the demands against it during the past year. Members of the last legislature were unable to get their full pay at the close of the session and there are Senators before me who have presented certificates for per diem of member of the last legislature, within a few days past, to whom payment was refused for want of funds. Comment is unnecessary. I wish to call particular attention to the pretended exhibit of the liabilities and resources of the State for the fiscal year, commencing the 1st day of January, 1856 by which a prospective surplus of $138,4[illegible]2 04 in the treasury on the first day of January, 1857, is attempted to be shown, and from which the inference is drawn that the last legislature levied a State tax at least $100,000 greater than the exigencies of the state treasury required with the object of creating partizan clamour for political ends.

It was my fortune, Mr President, to serve as a member of the committee on finance of the last Senate, which committee reported the facts and estimates upon which the tax law of last winter was based, as also the bill for the act itself. My associates upon that committee were the then Senator from Fond du Lac, (Mr Eldredge) and the present Senator from Marquette, gentlemen whose relations with and friendship to Gov Barstow and the late State administration were of the most intimate character. That committee set about the work of ascertaining the amount of State tax required to be levied at as early a day in the session as the progress of the labors of the session, and especially the grants of appropriations, warranted an approximate estimate of the liabilities of the State—the pretence of this message about the lateness of the time at which the bill was introduced and passed to the contrary notwithstanding. As the first step in our work the chairman of the committee (Mr Eldredge) and myself called upon the State Treasurer for a statement of the outstanding liabilities and present resources of the treasury, as well as an estimate of the prospective demand upon the department for the next fiscal year. I hold in my hand the identical statement handed to me by Mr Eldredge as obtained from the State Treasurer, accompanying a request that I would assume the duty of drafting the report and bill. Whether this paper be in the hand writing of Mr Janssen or Mr Seaver the deputy treasurer I am unable to state. That both accorded in the justness of its statements I know, from repeated conversations with those gentlemen over its items.

This statement reads as follows:

Salary of the State Officers [illegible]	$ [illegible] 00
Interest on State Loan,	7 500
Unpaid App certified to Treasury,	82 497
Appropriations for 18[illegible] now in Legislature (and out from Journals)	100 000
Expenses for Legislature for 1856, including Printing and Postage	70 000
Stationary for 18[illegible]-6	[illegible]
Postage for Office for 1855-6	[illegible]
Contingent Expenses 2 years,	20 000
State Prison for 1856,	[illegible]
" Building,	[illegible]
Printing Law and Journals	[illegible]
Permanent App for 1856,	[illegible]

Census	[illegible]
Transfer St Prisoners by Sheriff	2,000
School Land 2 years, 1855-6,	10 000
Documentary History,	[illegible]
Total,	$454 997 00
Deduct Cash on hand and to come in,	20 000 00
	$434,997 00

This statement and estimate, it will be perceived (making due allowance for resources of the State other than levy of State tax, and a very slight allowance on the other side for appropriations then pending in the Legislature, which item is left blank on this paper) calls for a State tax of at least 400,000 Dollars. In frequent conversation with Mr Janssen, the State Treasurer, he urged the necessity of a State tax of no less amount than $400,000 and deplored the cowardice of previous Legislatures in not daring to meet the constitutional obligation resting upon them to "provide for an annual tax sufficient, with other resources, to meet the estimated expenses of the State for each year," by which course the credit of the State was kept in doubt and the office of Treasurer rendered unnecessarily vexatious, through frequent complaint of creditors of the State, unable to get their pay when due.

Subsequently I obtained further information from the officers of Treasury by which I was enabled to distinguish the liabilities of the department for the then current year, from the estimates for the following year. These were precisely as stated in the report afterwards made by the Committee [See Senate Journal, page 722—as follows:

Amount of appropriations certified to the treasury for payment up to March 24th inst, remaining unpaid,	$82,497
Appropriations made but not yet certified—bills pending before the legislature and claims will be passed—estimated	30,000
Salaries for last half present fiscal year,	16,325
Contingent expenses,	10 000
Printing laws and journals,	9 000
Permanent appropriations yet unpaid	[illegible]
Expenses of census (estimated,)	12 000
Expenses school land office,	3,33[illegible]
Balance on documentary history,	9,500
Balance of expenses present legislature, including printing,	1[illegible],000
	$196,655
Total resources available during the present fiscal year, as estimated by the State Treasurer,	20,000
Leaving clear amount to be provided for by State taxes to meet liabilities of the treasury up to Jan 1st, 1856	176,655

The estimates for expenditures of the present fiscal year footed a trifle over $225,000, above other sources of revenue than taxation, showing necessity as by former estimate for a state tax of $400,000. The report and bill as at first drawn and submitted to my colleagues of the committee was in accordance with these statements and estimates of the officers having in charge the treasury and accounts of the state. I had certainly understood both these gentlemen at our deliberations over the matter, to accord in recognizing the painful necessity we rested under of providing for levying so burdensome a tax upon the people of the state. I had no idea of impressing any private views upon this report, or of subserving any political ends by my action on the committee. We had sought information solely from official sources, and my labors in drafting the report and bill I had regarded as merely clerical. Just as the report and bill, however, were about to be submitted to the Senate, some alarm was expressed at the great amount of tax provided for, and a day's delay for reconsideration was determined upon. To aid the committee in devising some reasonable chance for cutting down the bill the then senator from Grant [Ex Governor Dewey] was invited to meet with us and to his careful and experienced judgment every item in the report was submitted. The result of that deliberation was the statement of present liabilities of the treasury was left precisely as given in the report, showing an excess over its present resources of $176,655, as before read. But the estimates for the next ensuing year were cut down to the following:

Salaries,	$32,650
Legislative expenses, including postage and printing,	60,000
Permanent appropriations	[illegible]000
Interest on State loan,	7 500
Appropriations by legislature—[miscellaneous expenditures]	[illegible],000
Stationery for offices and legislature,	6 000
Postage for offices,	5,000
Contingent expenses of various departments,	10 000
State prison, current expenses	10,000
State prison building, and material,	[illegible]
Printing laws and journals,
Deaf and dumb and blind institutes	10,000
Transferring State prisoners by sheriffs,	2 000
Expenses school land bureau,	[illegible] 000
	$2[illegible],160

To aid in defraying this expenditure was estimated there would be received:

Tax on suits	$1 100
Bank tax,	3 000
Plank road railroad tax	15 000
Hawkers and peddlars' licenses	1 000
	$1[illegible] 000
Leaving to be provided by State tax	176,750
Add liabilities of the present year,	176,655
Total amount required to be raised by tax on the real and personal property of the State as returned by the assessor for the year 1856,	$[illegible]52,105

In this shape the Report was unanimously concurred in and signed by the committee, and the bill, as reported providing for a State tax of $350,000 passed the Senate by an unanimous vote.

I may have thought, at the time, of the tightness in which the treasurer, the majority of the committee, and other devoted friends of the administration among the majority of the Senate regarded the petty electioneering humbug got up by the Executive and Secretary of State at the opening of the session, that we were to have a surplus in the treasury of over $35,000, [instead of a debt of $176,655.] I must acknowledge a little surprise at the facility with which my associates on the committee certified to a statement that their favorite model administration would expend the state tax of $225,000, levied the year previous—exhausted all other resources of the State, stated by the Secretary of State on pp 43 of appendix to Senate Journal for 1855, at $63,526,91 and the same year run the State in debt so far as to call for more taxation, by about $400,000 to pay past indebtedness than they were willing to estimate for the entire expenses of the State government for the following year. Beyond this no word or thought of partizan interest or effect influenced my action in the matter, and the idea of providing a tax greater by a single dollar than necessity and constitutional obligation demanded never, I presume to say, entered the minds of a single Senator who voted for this bill.

In the Assembly, at the recommendation of the Committee of that House, at the head of which was Hon Morgan L Martin $25,000 was added to the bill—the Senate refused to concur—the Assembly receded from its amendment and the bill became a law, receiving the approval of Wm A Barstow, Governor.

From this plain statement of facts, we have but a very narrow range for conclusion. Either the State Treasurer and his deputy knew nothing of the condition and accounts of the department under their charge or they in violation of duty and good faith deceived and misled the Committee of the Senate, and, through them, the entire Legislature or that committee played upon the confidence of the Senate a base game of forgery and treachery, or else no such state of facts exists in reference to the finances of the State as set forth in the message. Which conclusion is the most probable those conversant with the history of politics in this State during the past year can determine for themselves. For my own part I have no faith in this alleged surplus in the Treasury—like that promised at the opening of last session, it will all have been scattered before the close of the year, and I greatly fear an ugly amount of indebtedness, crying for greater taxation be found instead. As for the mean insinuation that the last Legislature levied a burden of $100,000 unnecessary taxation upon the people of this State, to secure political ends, it quite befits the dignity of His Fraudulency, Wm A Barstow, but is far below the proprieties of official intercourse of a rightful Governor, with an equal and co ordinate branch of the government.

THE WISCONSIN OWNING UP.—The Wisconsin of yesterday relieves its feelings by an outpouring of very humble abuse upon the Sentinel, for exposing its falsehoods in the indictment matter, and substantially admits that Mr Thompson was mistaken (as the Sentinel stated and the receipt proves) in his testimony on the trial. But, triumphantly pursues our neighbor:

"The law distinctly says that such payment on the part of the postmaster shall constitute the crime of embezzlement. Now whether the amount of that draft was $8[illegible] or $5, is quite immaterial. The act of paying the draft in other money than that required by law constitutes the offence, and not the amount paid."

Well, if it was such a heinous offence in the Postmaster to pay out, after office hours and as a matter of accommodation to a public creditor, currency instead of coin, what does the Wisconsin say about its prompter, the United States District Attorney, who sat by, saw the deed done, helped furnish the obnoxious bank bills to pay the draft, never said a word about this "great offence," till eighteen months afterwards when he thought he could put it to account and "give Noonan a turn!"

PRACTICE vs PREACHING.—The Wisconsin protests that it is for "fair play in the canvass," and that when it is proved that Barstow has not a majority of the legal vote, he ought to be ousted. Well, what does the Wisconsin think of the proofs of fraud in Spring Creek, Bridge Creek, and Gilbert's Mills? These three precincts gave Barstow forty more votes than his official majority. They were all bogus. The proof to that effect is before the public. What does the Wisconsin say to it? Here is a practical opportunity for it to exhibit that love of "fair play" which it is fond of professing. Shall we hear from the Wisconsin about Spring Creek, Bridge Creek and Gilbert's Mills?

LAW is reported to be worth from $2,000 000 to $3 000,000. He can afford to devote $100 000 to coming popularity. He has presses already in Wisconsin who will urge his claims for the Presidency.—Wisconsin of yesterday.

We thought as much when we saw our old acquaintance CHAS S HURLEY, late of the Wisconsin going in so vigorously for Law. He will doubtless be one of Mr GEO LAW's envoys to this State and winning over the Wisconsin to the Live Hoax cause will be among his earliest achievements.

RUMORED BATTLE IN KANSAS.—A Telegraph from Weston to the St. Louis Republican, dated Jan 18, tells of a bloody fight between the "Abolitionists and "Pro Slavery Men," with loss of life on both sides. Later advices speak of the story as grossly exaggerated. It is of no doubt of the same Falstaffian pattern as the previous accounts from that quarter.

Police Court, Jan. 23.

Richard Pugh, for leaving his team unhitched fined $1 00

No persons brought round from the Watch House, no arrest having been made the night previous

A warrant was issued against Frederick Wagner, on complaint of John Walsclager, for assault and battery upon complainant, on the eighteenth day of January

The defendant in the above case is one of the city policemen, and the trouble or alleged assault and battery grew out of the arrest of the complainant for leaving his team unhitched, and on a charge of resisting the officer (the defendant above) The present complainant was acquitted of the charge of resistance, but fined for leaving his team unhitched

The second suit of Daniel Chapman vs the City of Milwaukee is set down for February 1st—pleadings filed

AUCTION TO-NIGHT — Mr KEELAR of the Chequered Auction Rooms sells to night a large stock of Clothing, Dry Goods Jewelry &c The sale will be continued on Friday and Saturday nights

SLIPPERY SIDE WALKS — The condition of our side-walks is neither safe, nor pleasant for pedestrians The hard frozen snow is exceedingly slippery, and it requires very steady going to escape a fall. The snow and ice should either be removed from the side-walks, or the surface sprinkled with ashes every morning House keepers and store keepers should attend to this without fail

CONCERT TO NIGHT — Professor TAYLOR assisted by Mrs. TAYLOR and Miss SHERMAN, will give a second Concert at Young's Hall this evening The ladies are charming vocalists, possessed of very sweet and powerful voices, and sing with taste and feeling The Professor himself ranks high as a composer and music teacher We are sure that they will greatly please all who go to hear them this evening

FRAME BUILDINGS AT AUCTION — See notice of sale of six frame buildings at auction, this afternoon at half past 2 o'clock by CALEB WALL, at the corner of East Water and Michigan streets

LIGHT GUARD SOIREE — The third soiree of the Light Guard at their Armory on Tuesday evening attracted a brilliant company and was one of the most delightful parties of the season The fourth and last of the series, announced for Tuesday week, February 5th, will be deferred till Thursday, the 7th the Masquerade Ball coming off on the 5th

THE PREVAILING EPIDEMIC — Our whole city is fairly possessed with the spirit of sleigh riding Everybody goes upon runners The boys coast down the steeper streets Fast young men dash along in pungs Occasionally, a happy couple snugly stowed away in Buffalo robes glide by in a stylish cutter Handsome double sleighs with horses and robes to match meet you at every corner and now and then, a four in hand astonishes the street It is the very carnival of winter, and, in truth the glorious sunshine, genial atmosphere and superb sleighing we have enjoyed for the past few days justify the general hilarity

REAL ESTATE SALE — Messrs BRADLEY & METCALF have bought of JAMES B MARTIN the two stores, 20 by 100 each now occupied by MACIE & SWAIN and H FESS on East Water street $82 000

R R DETENTION — The morning train from the West on the M & M Railroad yesterday, was three hours behind time in consequence of the breaking of an axle of a Passenger car near Milton No damage done

HANDSOME HOTEL OMNIBUS — Mr D S POLLITT, the proprietor of the Baltic House, on the corner of Main and Detroit streets, has had running for the past few days, an elegant new Omnibus from John Stephen's factory New York The Bus cost $450 and is one of the handsomest and best made vehicles in the West It is elegantly furnished inside and out and with a splendid team valued at $250 a silver mounted harness and a good looking driver, it is one of the best turn outs in the city

Mr POLLITT has had several years experience as a landlord in this city and keeps one of the very best hotels in the state the table, barn and beds of the Baltic House are well known to the traveling public as first rate. These, together with an attentive and reliable hostler makes the Baltic House one of the most desirable houses in the city for a traveler to stop at

S ADLER & NEWBOUER seem to be really in earnest in what they say in their advertisement of to day Knowing very well that there are some who make an apparent show of selling at low figures, and a little less than other houses thereby inducing customers to visit their stores, and then charging exorbitant prices for their goods They respectfully invite the fashionable as well as those who are not fashionable, to call upon them, and be convinced that they can and do sell goods at as low figures as any other store in the west, and many articles for less Give them a call

ADVICE GRATIS — If you will step into GATES & WILCOX S Hardware Store you will find the best assortment of Housekeeper's Goods, Table Cutlery, Table Castors, Cake Dishes, Fruit Stands, Enamelled Ware, Stoves and Tin Ware in the city, and at prices that will please you

SIX O'CLOCK REPORT.

Additional Foreign News.

LONDON, Jan 8

Lord Panmure has this day received a dispatch of which the following is a copy addressed to his Lordship, by Gen Sir Wm Codington.

K C B SEBASTOPOL, Dec 25, 1855

MY LORD —Notwithstanding the severe weather, the thermometer a few nights ago having fallen nearly to zero, the general state of the army has continued good The roads are in fair making order, and though the efficiency of the locomotive engines was impaired by the frost, the damage has been made good The final operations on the dock, have been somewhat delayed on our side by the interference of water and by freezing of pump stock The fire from the forts on the northern side of the Harbor continued, and it is at times heavy, but the casualties, I am happy to say, are few

There has been no movement of importance on the part of the enemy in our neighborhood of late A detachment of French troops surprised a Cossack post near Tulin, a few days, killing several men and taking the rest prisoners.

The general drill of the army makes good progress.

Baltic preparations enable authorities of Cherburg have been ordered to arm their screw liners and then sailing frigates which are to be ready for the opening of the campaign in the Baltic, in April next Independently of them, three ships are to be fitted out with all possible expedition Cherburg is to arm the war vessels and the twelve steam gun boats, which have returned from the last campaign in the Baltic are to form part of the last formidable expedition, which is to operate in that sea next spring

STOCKHOLM, Dec 24.

Activity unexampled ranges in the manufactory for producing articles necessary to the equipment of an army, the Cols of all the regiments have received orders to prepare their troops for marching at the first signal, the order was given secretly but it was in its nature impossible of concealment All leaves of absence to officers are refused, everybody here believes that in case the Allies should open the war with vigor in the Baltic next spring our Government will feel itself compelled to take an active part therein

VIENNA, Jan. 4

The amnesty which has been given to the Poles also include some foreigners, among them are 10 German and 30 French Col De Manteuffel had an audience with the Emperor yesterday, the chances of an understanding between Russia and Austria appear to be increasing

HAMBURG, Jan 4

The news from Sweden states that General Black, Minister of War in Norwalk and Commander in Chief of the Army, has been directed to organize the Norwegian troops in concert with the Head of the War Department, at Stockholm

Details by the Africa—Preparations for War—Affairs in Asia.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23

The steamer Africa arrived at her dock at 8 o'clock Nothing new of importance. Peace question unchanged.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS—Cotton, sales for three days 20,000 bales, export, 10,000, speculators 10,000 Published reports say full but unchanged prices Private reports say one sixteenth to one-eighth lower

Rigland H & Co, report wheat in good demand, 2d dearer

Flour—Better demand, 6a6d dearer

Corn—Holders of corn demand an advance, but not conceded to by buyers, at 42

Lard—Favors buyer, 78s 6d out side

Rosin—Common rosin is freely offered at 4s 6d.

Beef—In rather more request

Pork—Still neglected The Baltic's arrival will test the market.

Cheese—Better demand at lower rates.

Consols about 88¾a88⅞.

News by the Africa consists mostly of an extension of the peace rumors by previous steamers Russia's answer cannot arrive until the 10th but probably some days later, and it is expected will contain neither absolute assent nor refusal, but will make counter proposals to be settled by renewed conferences.

The feeling in England continues warlike, and in France is again becoming so, Russia continues incessant preparations.

Nothing later from the Crimea. The French blew up one of the Sebastopol docks on the 22nd of December

Affairs in Asia unchanged.

British news unimportant. A grand council of Allied Generals is ere now in session in Paris.

The Conference on Danish Sound Dues is postponed indefinitely

Rumors have been received that Naples has joined the Alliance

Sweden is making active warlike preparations.

Latest Berlin papers speak not unfavorably of the disposition of Russia to consider Allied proposals

LATEST —London, Wednesday morning, 9th —English funds yesterday experienced a rally, ⅞ at opening, but a relapse subsequently took place, closing at yesterday's prices. Money was in good demand, at 5 per cent. Government securities at Paris, 8 per cent Foreign exchange generally better

ASIA —The Russian army took position at Kars Dec 3 5,000 troops are quartered in the town leaving a small detachment occupying the fortifications at Sapanty Dagh, and at Yeniskea, a village on the road to Erzeroum. The Russians had collected a large store of provisions. The Russian general is apprehensive of an attack upon Kars, by Selim Pacha, and, consequently, has concentrated all available forces at that point Selim Pacha was encamped in the mountains

A Russian attack on Erzeroum was not considered probable at present, in consequence of the exhaustion of the troops, and bad state of the roads

Nothing definite yet known from St. Petersburgh Speculations contradictory as ever Interviews had taken place between Nesselrode and Esterhazy, but the main question had not been discussed The most that is expected from Russia is a modified counter proposition, such as may insure further negotiations and delay In the meantime, the tone of the French Government becomes more warlike, while preparations to continue the conflict are larger than ever Moldavia sends a special envoy to St. Petersburgh, to support the Saxon envoy It is again confidentially asserted that Austria will submit the peace propositions to the German Diet, and call on the Diet to support them

Dates from the Crimea are to the 25th inst.—The Russians have increased their fortifications over Inkermann, and unmasked new batteries on left Tchernaya

Pellisier remains in the Crimea. The Sardinian General Mamora will act as a proxy in the Paris war council

No injury was done to the ships of war by the recent storms

ASIA MINOR —Omar Pacha had arrived at Batoum His army had suffered from a scarcity of provisions before reaching Kutaira, and being unable to proceed, he deemed it prudent to return

The fall of Kars has rendered Omar Pacha very unpopular at Constantinople

General Williams had arrived at Germany —The Council of war at Constantinople are directing all their efforts to the defense of Erzeroum and Trebizond

Advices from Oakoch state that the Allied fleet had quitted the Gulf without finding the cannon buried by the Russians

The Grand Council of war at St. Petersburg were principally engaged on questions relating to fortifying the strategic points of the Empire The fortifications of Lieu will be finished before the close of winter

The Railroad from Moscow to St Petersburg is to be protected by redoubts placed at intervals along the line. Each redoubt to be occupied by a battalion of military A Paris letter alluding to the recent report that the U S. had made a treaty with the Shah of Persia, guaranteeing his territory on the Persian gulf, though no such treaty has been made, yet it is certain that the most friendly advances have been made, and it is unfortunate that the moment Russia and America are intriguing with the Shah, a suspension of Persian diplomatic relations with England had taken place

Excitement exist at Rome by a report that Mexico had superceded its legation in Rome, and withdrawn its Minister

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

The House refused to order the main question to be put, and accordingly the subject lies over until to morrow Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, 23d.

The Democrats met in caucus immediately after the adjournment of the House, and after two hours deliberation, Mr Richardson having withdrawn, Mr Orr was unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for Speaker A proposition to vote for the plurality rule in case Banks and Fuller in addition to Richardson shall withdraw was rejected The Americans meanwhile held a caucus in one of the Court rooms.

They are willing to withdraw Fuller but insist on an organization on broad National grounds, and will strive to effect that object.

The Anti Nebraska men held a caucus to-night.

In the U S. Supreme Court to-day Jacob Kinsel vs. the President and Directors of the public schools of St. Louis, Judge Caton delivered the opinion of the Court in this case affirming the judgment of the Supreme Court of Missouri with costs

Mr. Richardson Declines—No Speaker Yet.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.

MR RICHARDSON DECLINES —In the House this morning Mr Richardson said he was sincerely desirous of an organization, it had been intimated that there would be an election should he and the other candidates retire. His position of a candidate was not of his own seeking, as he was anxious to recede in order to relieve the House of embarrassment He would retire to day if possible, or to-morrow at farthest.

Additional to the House —Vote, Banks, 90, Richardson, 65, Fuller, 30, Campbell, 5, scattering, 7—necessary to a choice 98

Ruffin, of North Carolina, offered a resolution expressing the sense of the House that if existing candidates would withdraw after to-day, the obstacles to an organization would be then removed. House refused, by a vote, to lay the resolution on the table

A resolution was adopted providing that the daily sessions be opened with prayer, and that the ministers of Washington be requested to officiate alternately

HARRISBURGH, Jan. 23

HOUSE —To-day the bill repealing the Liquor Law was ordered to a 2nd reading by a vote of 70 to 22. The H use adopted a resolution tendering the thanks of the Legislature, to Dr Kane for his Arctic discoveries Introduce the following as report of the Dem caucus in Washington It was also resolved to follow the nomination of Orr, in the principles which have governed the selection of Richardson at the first Caucus

Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

FOR DISEASES OF THE BLADDER and Kidneys Secret Diseases Strictures Weakness and all diseases of the sexual organs whether in male or female, from whatever cause they may have originated and no matter how long standing

If you have contracted the terrible disease which, when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of quacks who start up every day in a city like this, and fill the papers with their glaring falsehoods too well calculated to deceive the young and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases

The Fluid Extract Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the greatest remedy ever known. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste, and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease, and unlike other remedies, does not dry up the disease in the blood

Constitutional debility brought on by self abuse, a most terrible disease which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves, thus blasting the brilliant hopes of parents, and blighting in the bud the glorious ambition of many a noble youth, can be cured by this infallible remedy. And as a medicine which must benefit everybody from the simply delicate to the confined and despairing invalid, no equal is to be found acting both as a cure and preventative

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

Compound Fluid Extr. Sarsaparilla

For purifying the blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease arising from an impure state of the blood and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of scrofula, salt rheum scald head, ulcerations of the throat and legs, pains and swellings of the bones, tetter, pimples on the face and all scaly eruptions of the skin

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished physicians in the country and has proved more efficient in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary syphilis mercurial and scrofulous diseases have entirely recovered in the incurable wards of our public institutions, which had for many years resisted every mode of treatment that could be devised. These cases furnish striking examples of the salutary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases after the glands were destroyed and the bones already affected

Notice—Letters from responsible physicians and professors of several medical colleges and certificates of cures by patients will be found accompanying both preparations

Prices—Fluid Extract of Buchu $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. Fluid extract of Sarsaparilla, $1 per bottle or six bottles for $5—equal in strength to one gallon of syrup of sarsaparilla

Prepared and sold by H T Helmbold Chemist, 263 Chestnut st, near the Girard House. Philadelphia

MISCELLANEOUS.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6

THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year, XVth of its weekly is recommenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. With but a subordinate regard to prudence policy or popularity it has aimed to stand for Right, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave trader on this Continent, though he may never read anything but his bills of sale and notes payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder why its publication is tolerated in a commercial, cotton buying City like New York. The NEWARK MERCURY once forcibly remarked that it had never known a hard, grinding, screwing, avaricious employer who was not hostile to THE TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain spoken in its denunciations of iniquity and abuses of power, while claiming no exemption from human fallibility, it may have done temporary injustice to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. In its columns the advocates of novel and unpopular theories contemplating the melioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and down trodden, have ever found audience and hospitality, while it has ardently [illegible] and persistingly combat every attempt to proscribe [illegible] [illegible] class because of diversities of Nativity [illegible] Color

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and untiring, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with one or two assistants, its organization now comprises a numerous body of writers each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted, the daily amount of reading matter given is more than quadruples that of its earliest issues, a staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting early and intelligent narrations of whatever is most worthy of attention, while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short whatever affects the social well being of mankind—Polemic Theology alone excepted—find here the freest and most searching discussion

Attached by profound conviction to the beneficent policy of Industrial Development and Internal Intercommunication whose most conspicuous champion through the last Half Century was HENRY CLAY—and led moreover with the spirit of forbearance toward our weaker neighbors [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Aborigines of this Continent [illegible] [illegible] of peace with all which will allow the name of Whig THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its principles in independence, co operated earnestly and ardently with the Whig party, so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1854 an attempt was made to interpolate [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] we sternly resisted that impotent [illegible] of the close of the last Presidential canvass [illegible] that a large portion of the Whigs preferred to desert their own party rather than allow its Anti Slavery wing to share its triumph, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro Slavery platform, we knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was no more. Subsequent events including the rise and culmination of the Know Nothing [illegible] and the speedy absorption [illegible] of the [illegible] of Pro Slavery Whiggism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly amenities [illegible] [illegible] for the inevitable by gone, but with hope, [illegible] and sympathy, in words of cheer have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which, impelled by the perfidious violation of the Missouri Compact, and stimulated by the astounding outrages whereof the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by horde [illegible] and utter violation of their elections by an armed [illegible] collected by conspiracy and hurled suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State is destined to sweep away the land marks of old party feuds and unite the true hearts and strong arms of the [illegible] in one mighty effort to confine the scourge and scandal of our country within the limits of the States which now sadly uphold it. To the success of this effort, the energies of THE TRIBUNE will be steadily devoted while the TEMPERANCE REFORM including the legal suppression of the Traffic in Intoxicating Beverages will find [illegible] [illegible] a faithful and unflinching champion

Consisting as it does of a [illegible] sheet of moderate size, and with its ample show of patronage THE TRIBUNE is now issued in quarto form Daily (three distinct editions), Semi-Weekly and Weekly, on a sheet 44 by 34 inches eight ample pages of six columns each. Its circulation has steadily grown from nothing to the following aggregates

Daily issues (evening and morning)	29,500	copies
Semi Weekly	14,175
Weekly	137,750
California edition	6,000	"
Total	187,425	copies

We believe no other newspaper in the world has a subscription list over half so large as this, and no periodical [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. We owe its extreme cheapness rendering an increase of paying readers [illegible] an indirect pecuniary advantage to us. It is doubtless largely swelled its subscription list. It would be absurd [illegible] to pretend that it is not an evidence and [illegible] patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem

TERMS

THE TRIBUNE employs no traveling agents and sends out no papers on trust. It is not stopped when the term paid for expires, until the subscriber does not choose for them to pay for it we resort to no legal process to compel them to pay. We mean to stop every paper on the [illegible] of the weekly [illegible] [illegible] expiration of the advance payment awaiting a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes, the account is closed. We pay no local agents, wish no money paid to any when the giver cannot trust it to mail or otherwise send it to us once mailed, its safety is at our risk, and a serious risk it often proves,) but are grateful to every one who deems it a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms invariably are—for the

ANOTHER TRIUMPH OF HERRING'S SAFES.

"To Silas C Herring—
Dear Sir—The safe I bought of you, nearly two years since, has turned up all right. We dug it from the ruins in the cellar yesterday. The safe was in the back part of the fourth story of Lotterall's Building, corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets in the height of the fire of the 15th inst, and fell with the burning timbers a distance of 40 feet. It contained all my books and papers, not a thing was saved on my premises except the contents of your safe, which effectually resisted all the fury of the flames. I am now using the same books and papers

READ AND JUDGE FOR YOURSELVES

PROFESSOR WOOD'S Hair Restorative is no doubt the most wonderful discovery of this age of progress, for it will restore, permanently, grey hair to its original color, cover the head of the bald with a most luxuriant growth, remove at once all dandruff and itching, cure all Scrofula and other cutaneous eruptions, such as scald head, &c. It will cure as if by magic, nervous or periodical headache, make the hair soft, glossy, and wavy, and preserve the color perfectly, and the hair from falling to extreme old age. We could give the testimony of more than one hundred thousand to the truth of every word we have written. See circular and the following:

CARLYLE, Ill., June 29, 1855

I have used Prof Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effect. My hair was becoming, as I thought prematurely grey, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and I have no doubt permanently so

SIDNEY BREESE,
Ex-Senator United States.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 10, 1853.

Prof O J Wood Dear Sir—As you are about to manufacture extensively and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that I have for several years been in the habit of using other hair restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head from dandruff and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance, and all this without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would therefore recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture of hair

Respectfully yours
WILSON KING

A gentleman of Boston writes to his friends in New Bedford, thus

To your inquiries I would reply that when I first commenced using Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, my hair was almost white, and had been so for the last ten years and it was very thin on the top of my head, and very loose and pulled out freely, but I found that before I had used the second bottle up (which was eight weeks) my hair was entirely changed to its original color (light brown) and is now free from dandruff and quite moist. I have had my hair cut five or six times since the change, and have never seen anything like white hair starting from the roots, and it is now as thick as it ever was, and does not come out at all. It has proved in my case all that I could wish or ask,
Yours, &c, ———.

GARDINER, Me., June 22, 1855.

Mr Dyer Dear Sir—I have used two bottles of Prof Wood's Hair Restorative, and can truly say it is the greatest discovery of the age for restoring and changing the hair. Before using it, I was as grey as a man of seventy. My hair has now attained its original color. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind

Yours, &c,
DANIEL N MURPHY.

ST LOUIS, March 7, 1854.

Prof Wood—My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until I became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say it is doing wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

A C WILLIAMSON,
133 Second Street.

ST LOUIS, June 29, 1853.

Prof Wood—As you are about to prepare and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months ago, very grey, and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, it assumed its original color, and since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable itching of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not regret it, as it gives the appearance of having been recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair I am, sir, yours, &c,

LIFE AND DEATH.
THE
Mysteries of Disease Laid Open to the People.
Health is the Principle of Life—Disease is the Precept of Death.

The R. R. R. Remedies possess the great power to secure to the human system health and long life, and free the human family from pains, aches, and all bodily infirmities.

THE ART OF PRESERVING HEALTH AND THE METHOD OF CURING DISEASE BY THE R R R'S.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

IS TO BE USED in all cases where there is pain. The moment it is applied externally, or taken internally, it will allay the most torturing aches, pains, cramps, spasms, burns scalds &c, quicker than Morphine, Chloroform, Veratrine, or any other anodyne or remedy that has ever been used by medical men

It is safer than these dangerous remedies. The public will bear in mind that Chloroform, Morphine, Opium, &c, only stifle the pain by stupifying the senses, so that the perceptive faculties lose the power of feeling, and that after the influence of these narcotics have passed from the system—the pain again breaks forth with its terrible pangs, with renewed violence

Radway's Ready Relief stops the pain and removes the cause of the disease that occasions it, it infuses new life into the weak and diseased parts. It braces the nerves, and establishes in the system a reaction of health and strength, in the place of pain, weakness and disease.

As a counter irritant, Radway's Ready Relief applied to the surface of the body, where there is any inflammation or congestion, it will instantly scatter the congested blood, equalizes the circulation, and in a few minutes the most excruciating pains are removed. This may be seen in cases of Lumbago, Gout, and Rheumatism in their most terrible forms, where an application of Radway's Ready Relief will restore the patient ease and comfort.

Crippled with Rheumatism, Arm and Leg perished—No hopes of his recovery—Timely use of R. R. R.—A wonderful cure.

LETTER FROM ISAAC HUDDLESTONE.
Rapids Parish, La., June 10th, 1855.

Messrs Radway & Co.—Radway's Ready Relief has cured Peter May of Rheumatism, when there was no hope of his ever recovering. I heard of his situation and I sent for him. His right arm and leg was all perished. He had no use of them at all, but by the use of your medicine, in two months he was carrying the mail from Cherryville to Burr's Ferry. I objected. He said he must do something for a living. It has been fourteen months since he was cured. He is now well and working on his farm, and the whole cost of your medicine was five dollars.

AYER'S PILLS.

"Wisdom shall bow down to it, and the great of the earth shall kneel before it."

Never could this be said with more truth, than it now applies to this remedy for affections of the Throat and Lungs. The exalted in learning and power acknowledge its supremacy, while both the little and the great can feel its benefits. The liberal-minded among those skilled to cure are free to own its mastery over distempers which have baffled their art. Those of exalted stations are not ashamed to testify to its virtues, but deem it a duty and a pleasure to thus hold out the lamp of their experience to their suffering fellow men

DR. WEAVER'S CANKER & SALT RHEUM SYRUP & CERATE.

IT IS AN UNDISPUTABLE FACT THAT the above medicines are the only infallible remedies now before the public for cutaneous Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Sore Legs, Ulcers, Old Fever Sores, Scald Head, Scorbutic Eruptions, &c, &c

Cases that the most eminent Physicians have despaired of relieving, immediately yielded to their curative powers, and when used in accordance with the printed directions, which accompany each bottle, the Syrup and Cerate combined eradicates any of the above named diseases, and leaves the sufferer without a blemish. These medicines are too well known to require anything more than a plain statement of facts. The joyful intelligence is reaching us daily from East, West, North and South, of the wonderful cures they are performing

See what is said by those who have used these medicines

The Rev Samuel Henry, of Palmer, Mass, says, "they have done me more good than all the other medicines I have used for Erysipelas."

Capt William Lail, of the steamer Granite State, says: "they have cured my daughter of Salt Rheum and Scald Head of six years' standing. She was literally covered with sores, is now perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup and Cerate"

Dr A J Johnson, of North Wardsboro, Vt., says, "a Scrofulous disease of the hip joint, and Scald Head in the same child, have been cured by the Syrup and Cerate."

Rev August Bellen says "it has cured the Salt Rheum in my leg"

J Hatfield Frazer, Esq., editor of the Somerset Whig, Somerville, N J, says "my mother has been completely cured of a severe case of Tetter of long standing, that had defied the skill of the best Physicians."

Hon. Joel Loomis, of East Lyme, Conn., says, "I was completely cured of Erysipelas in my leg, after a council of the best Physicians in the County had pronounced the disease incurable, (at my age which was seventy-eight years, but Weaver's Syrup and Cerate did the work at once"

Miss Latham, Esq., of Orient, Long Island, N Y, says, "I hardly know how to express my gratitude to you and your medicines. I have been afflicted for more than thirty years with Salt Rheum in its worst form. I tried several Physicians in New York, Brooklyn and Greenport. I have dieted and taken medicines enough to float a pretty large boat, but they did me no good. I have taken your medicines one year, and am now able to work and sleep without an ache or a pain, and my neighbors say I am the sprightliest man on the Island."

The Rev J S Swan, of New London says, I have used the Syrup and Cerate in my family for more than a year and I consider it completely adapted to sustain the high reputation that is claimed for it. I have seen it used in a number of cases for Salt Rheum and Erysipelas, with entire success.

Ask Seth Prisbery, of Taunton, Mass., what the medicines will do, ask William Barber, of Three Mile Bay, Jeff Co, N. Y., what the syrup has done for him, ask G. F. & W. H. Boynton, of Perkinsville, Vt.; ask F L Kent, of Chicago, Ill, ask Martha Cottle, of Martha's Vineyard, Mass, ask Wm F Keables, or Wm P Benjamin, Esqs., of New London, ask Dr. H M Murdock, of Pulaski, N. Y., ask J O Smith, of Brooklyn N. Y., who was cured of Scrofula, after losing his leg by the disease, and suffering for years, has been perfectly cured by the use of the Syrup & Cerate, ask Curtis Burrough, of Shelby, N. Y., who has been cured of a severe case of Salt Rheum, ask Chas. Akin of Hume, N. Y, what the Syrup and Cerate will do for sore legs, ask Winslow and Slafter, Merchants, Virgil, N. Y. what it will do for Fever Sores. In a word, ask every body who has ever tried these wonderful medicines, and the answer will be the same—THEY CURE.

HARNDEN'S CONCENTRATED COUGH SYRUP.

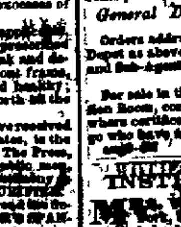
COUGHS, COLDS AND CONSUMPTION



THE Proprietors of this PURELY VEGETABLE AND TRULY VALUABLE SYRUP, claim for it no magic powers nor do they offer it to the public as an antidote for all the ills and ailments of life—but solely as a remedy for COUGHS, COLDS, and diseases of the Chest and Lungs, in advanced as well as incipient stages. They WARRANT THE SYRUP PURELY VEGETABLE, and free from Opiate or Drug of any kind.

Unlike all other of the many advertised remedies for Colds and Consumption—the action of this Syrup is direct—hand in hand with nature—its benefits are immediate—not leaving the invalid time to regard it as an experiment, requiring slow process, in arresting disease, and restoring health. Ordinary Coughs and Colds generally yield within twenty four hours; while those of long standing, and which, through negligence or continued imprudence, have assumed more alarming symptoms, usually require the use of the Syrup from ten to twenty days. In cases of hereditary or constitutional character, and which, in many instances, have gained mental as well as physical possession of the invalid, more time is necessarily required, to arrest the disease—in eradicating the taint of blood—in restoring natural sleep and quiet of mind—and ensuring permanent benefit.

☞ In its highly concentrated form, one bottle of this Syrup is equal to six times the quantity were it prepared in any other manner, and ☞ ONE BOTTLE WILL TELL ITS VIRTUE IN EVERY CASE. ☜

For the purpose of securing ourselves and the public against fraud or imposition, every agent for the sale of this Syrup will be personally selected and appointed by one of our firm, or our general agent, and as a further safeguard the directions accompanying each bottle will be signed by Mr HARNDEN

ENNO MEYER, No 366 Third Street, Milwaukee, has been appointed GENERAL AGENT for the State of Wisconsin. For sale also by all the Druggists in Milwaukee
